

EMT-Basic Exam Errata (through the 3rd printing)

Please note the following corrections:

Page number	Correction
113, question 33	Should read: 33. C The patient's symptoms are consistent with a bee sting and she is giving no evidence at this time of anaphylaxis. You should, however, continue to monitor the patient and urge her to go to the emergency room for a more definitive diagnosis.
180, question 66, fourth sentence	Should read: He is conscious and responsive to verbal stimuli with a patent airway and no difficulty in swallowing.
192, question 62	The correct answer is B . Explanation is correct as is.
197, question 62	The correct answer is B . Explanation is correct as is.